Overview: Cognitive psychologist studying basic mechanisms in memory and attention, with a focus on fallibility especially as it applies in legal contexts.

Goal: Dr. Moore's long-term goal is to develop a reliable evidence-base to improve policy and procedure surrounding person searches and the gathering of eyewitness evidence.

Approach: Dr. Moore values inclusivity, diversity, accessibility, mentorship, openness, and transparency and works to uphold those values in all domains.

Career History

Assistant Professor Department of Psychology University of Utah	2023-Present
Assistant Professor Department of Psychology Oklahoma State University	2019-2023
Assistant Professor Department of Psychology Knox College	2017-2019

Education

The University of Arkansas Experimental Psychology, Ph.D. The Role of Memory and Attention in the Search for Missing Persons Advisor: James (Jim) Lampinen, Ph.D.	2017
Experimental Psychology, M.A. The Use of Recollection Rejection in the Misinformation Paradigm Advisor: James (Jim) Lampinen, Ph.D.	2014
The University of Texas at Arlington Honors Psychology, B.A., Summa Cum Laude Advisor: Timothy (Tim) Odegard, Ph.D.	2012

Fellowships

Project TIER (Teaching Integrity in Empirical Research)	2019-2020

Grants

- Merrie, L. & Moore, K.N. (February, 2023). Eye tracking Software for Psychology and Speech Departments. Oklahoma State University-College of Arts and Science Student Technology Fee Grant ($1,900).
- Moore, K.N. French, J., Zwemer, D., & Bansal, V. (September, 2022) Inquisit 6: Implications for Research and Educational Instruction. Oklahoma State University-College of Arts and Science Student Technology Fee Grant ($9,995).
- Lampinen, J.M. (PI) & Moore, K.N. (Co-PI) (August, 2021). A Virtual Reality Many-Labs Approach to Testing the Pristine Conditions Hypothesis of the Confidence-Accuracy Relationship in Eyewitness Identification. National Science Foundation – Law and Social Sciences. ($669,885; Moore sub-award $211,764)
- Moore, K.N. & Garza, R. (October, 2020) Eye tracking equipment. Oklahoma State University-College of Arts and Science Student Technology Fee Grant ($24,400).
- Moore, K.N. (November, 2019) (PI). The Role of Vigilance in Missing Person Search Recoveries. American Psychology-Law Society – Grants-In-Aid ($5,000)
- Moore, K.N. (November, 2019) (PI). Use of Open Access Resources in an Undergraduate Memory Course. Oklahoma State University–Hack Your Syllabus Mini-Grant ($750).
- Moore, K.N. (2016) (PI). The Role of Incentives in Prospective Person Memory. American Psychology-Law Society – Grants-In-Aid ($610)
- Moore, K.N. (2014) (PI). The Role of Expectations in Prospective Person Memory. American Psychology-Law Society – Grants-In-Aid ($400)

Submitted and Unfunded Grants

- Moore, K.N. (PI) (submitted July, 2024). Using Virtual Reality and Eye Tracking to Uncover Attention and Memory Mechanisms in Prospective Person Memory. National Science Foundation – Law and Science. ($526,141)
- Baldassari, M. & Moore, K.N. (Co-PI) (October, 2023). Testing Interactions with Eyewitness Pre-Event Instructions. American Psychology-Law Society – Grants-In-Aid ($5,000).
- Moore, K.N. (August, 2021) (PI). Using Virtual Reality to Answer Novel Questions About the Role of Attention in Prospective Person Memory. National Science Foundation – Perception, Action, and Cognition. ($329,342).
- Moore, K.N. (2020) (PI). Using Virtual Reality to Answer Novel Questions About Missing and Wanted Persons Searches. American Psychology-Law Society – Research to Enhance the Impact and Diversification of Psychology & Law Research (Large Proposal up to $50,000)
- Lampinen, J.M. (PI), Moore, K.N. (January, 2020) (Co-PI, sub-award). A Virtual Reality Many-Labs Approach to Testing the Pristine Conditions Hypothesis of the Confidence-Accuracy Relationship in Eyewitness Identification. National Science Foundation – Law and Social Sciences. (Moore sub-award $181,524)
- Moore, K.N. (December, 2019) (PI-Finalist). Using Virtual Reality to Answer Novel Questions About Missing and Wanted Persons Searches. American Psychology-Law Society – Research to Enhance the Impact and Diversification of Psychology & Law Research (Large Proposal $50,000)

Honors and Awards

Spring 2023 Travel Award, Oklahoma State University, College of Arts & Sciences ($1,200)	2023
College of Arts and Sciences AURCA Work-Study Award, Oklahoma State University	'21-'23
College of Arts and Sciences Research (ASR) Program, Oklahoma State University ($8,233)	2021
Networking Award, Women in Cognitive Sciences, Psychonomics ($500)	2020
Spring 2020 Travel Award, Oklahoma State University, College of Arts & Sciences ($1,200)	2020
Outstanding Student Presentation, American Psychology-Law Society ($200)	2016
Doctoral Academy Fellowship, University of Arkansas ($40,000)	'12-'16
Outstanding Senior in Psychology, UT Arlington	2012
Undergraduate Research Assistantship, UT Arlington Honors College ($3,000)	2011
